Talk About New Street

Business Men's Association of Opinion Borough Should Have Road to River

Matters pertaining to the opening up of another street to the river occupied the attention of the members of the Charleroi Business Men's Association who attended the meeting of the association Thursday evening. It was reported that the only road to the river at the present time, which happens to be Second street, is usually in poor condition. Third street is available, but it will take some money to acquire the right to open up a street there. A committee from the Business Men's Association will visit council to bring up the matter and to get council work on the matter.

Since council sold the portion of Eighth street leading from the railroad to the river some time ago to the Macbeth-Evans Glass company the matter of a street to the river has been hanging fire. An option was secured on a portion of the Third street property owned by the Hussy-Binns Shovel company, but because no agreement as to price for the land could be rached it was never purchased, and the question of a new street was allowed to drop temporarily.

Another matter taken by the Business Men's Asociation was that of the baseball game to be played on next Monday by the Charleroi club of the Pawva league and a selected club composed of local players and recruits of the Pawva league club here. The business men will work to get a good attendance at the game. It is to be a benefit for the Charleroi playgrounds, President P. B. Wreath having agreed to donate all the receipts to that purpose.

The rendition of the program was followed by a social session, during which time lunch was served. Misses Emma Clutter and Elma Collins were each called upon for solos and the Washington Avenue Presbyterian quartet sang a selection. TO WATCH THE CLUBS

Court Tells Detective McCleary to Make Sure They Obey Law

Hereafter the sideboards of fraternal orders and clubs of Washington county will be operated under the supervision of the county courts, County Detective William McCleary being the direct representative of the courts to see that certain rules and regulations similar to those governing saloons are observed.

This in a sentence is the substance of the opinion and decree handed down Thursday by Judge J. A. McIlvaine in the cases of the eight fraternal order stewards recently arrested on charges of violating the liquor laws. These accused stewards, instead of fighting the cases against them as had been expected last Friday entered pleas of nolle contendere. Thursday the final disposition of their cases was made by the court.

Under this ruling of the court liquor may be dispensed only to resident members of the various fraternal orders and clubs absolutely at cost. The sideboards must be closed on Sundays, election days and holidays observed by licensed houses. They must be closed at unseasonable hours of the night. If a wife or relative of any club members objects to his being served drink, that request must be honored. It is understood that the decree, while handed down in the case of but eight orders, applies to every order of similar character in the county.

The defendant stewards are paroled on payment of costs, County Detective William McCleary be named probation officer. Under this probation ruling the county detective is to visit all these clubs dispensing drinks and keep tab on their methods.

BASEBALL SPARKS

"Stick" McWilliams, the Washington catcher, showed up at bat at the rate of about a million per cent Thursday. He looks like a comer under O'Day's tutelege.

Phillips a boy six feet four inches high and with over 200 pounds of weight well distributed reported to Manager Hank on Thursday, coming from Connellsville. Phillips is from Waynesburg and has the looks of a pitcher, though he says he plays first base.

Bob Coulson came up from Donora to look things over Thursday and was pleased with the workout though he made few comments.

Bill Donahue a Charleroi pitcher, has been working out with the team and getting the benefit of coaching. He was dishing them over the pan in good style Thursday afternoon.

Of all the hopefuls, the pitchers are in the best shape. This is for the reason that they had been working out before they reported.

It is imposible to guess the aggregate height of the lot of ball players now here, but it must be something like 4,000 feet.

There is a widespread rejoicing that the Mexican trouble is not going to cost the taxpayers anything, as the money will all be borrowed—Uniontown Record.

Installing Innovations

Athletic Field and Baseball Grounds to be Constructed at Eldora Park

All week work has been under way for the renovation and improvement of Eldora park in anticipation of the opening date of May 15. In the improvement of the park, much attention is being given to the preparation of an athletic field and to the construction of a baseball diamond. The usual park features that have been popular in past years will be maintained.

The athletic field will be constucted in the large open field above where the roller coaster now stands. With a little grading and the application of a few loads of cinders, a cinder track that will be as good as any that can be laid, will be the result.

The baseball diamond will be laid out on the crest of the hill above the cinder track. There is plenty of room in this newly acquired, level ground for a field of ample dimensions and a good diamond will be prepared.

Another feature that will be installed this year will be that of a children's playgrounds. A slide, seesaws, swings and sandpiles will be placed there as part equipment.

Announcement was made by Manager T. P. Sloan and Assistant Manager Roy S. Sharpnack today that Mrs. J Jenkins of Monongahela, would continue her weekly dances this season, and will have Monday night as her night each week for these dances.

Dates have been set for at least three school picnics. The Donora schools will have the first school picnic on May 28. The second picnic will occur on May 29, when the Monongahela schools will be at the park The Monessen schools have selected as their picnic date June 5.

Game Here Called Off

Wreath's Club Not to Play Exhibition Contest Because of Wet Grounds

The Charleroi club of the Pawva league will not play the exhibition game scheduled for tomorrow afternoon with the Pittsburg Independents, owing to wet grounds. Rains of this morning put the blink on the grounds so that to attempt a game tomorrow afternoon would seem foolhardy. President Wreath therfore called off the attraction and if the day is fit will simply have it set apart for practice.

President Wreath this morning read with satisfaction the score of the defeat handed the Pittsburg Independents on Thursday by the Connellsville Pawva team. The Independents are composed of some of the best players in and around Pittsburg and the game simply showed the superiority of the Connellsville league club.

Five men have been dropped from the Charleroi roster by Manager Hank O'Day. To make them entirely free President Wreath gave them written releases. The players dropped are: Smith a first baseman of Maryland. Smith an infielder of Claysville, Whitehead a shortstop from Sharon, Stark, an infielder from Donora and McCune a catcher from Claysville.

A COMPARISON

The occupation of Vera Cruez, of which the seizure of the custom house was the first step has cost the navy not far from the same losses that General Winfield Scott sustained in his elaborate land operations to reduce the city in February, 1847, says the New York Sun. Scott's army consisted of 12,000 officers and men of all branches of the service and Vera Cruz was defended by a force of 4,390, half of them regulars, commanded by General Juan Morales. The war with Mexico had been in progress for nearly a year. Palo Alto, Resaca de la Palma and Monterey had been fought in Northern Mexico, with but slight effect upon the issue of the war.

A campaign against the City of Mexico by way of Vera Cruz hac become necesary. Scott was to strike hard from the moment he landed and for that day his complement of 12,000 men was a formidable American army. The landing on the beach was unopposed, and at once he began to invest Vera Cruz, which at that time was fortified by a series of bastions and redans. Heavy siege guns were landed from the American transports and for four days an almost unremitting fire from the American batteries was kept up to which the Mexican artillery replied vigorously. Eighteen days after Scott disembarked his army the Mexicans surrended Vera Cruz. Their losses were reported as about 600 in killed and wounded, but "these figures," says Rives (in "The United States and Mexico, 1821-1848,") "must be grossly exaggerated.' The casualties of the American army were twelve killed and forty-nine wounded, while the navy lost seven killed and eight wounded, a total of nineteen men killed and fifty-seven wounded.

In Admiral Fletcher's operations, not supposed to be an act of war in their origin, the American casualties were seventeen men killed and fifty-eight wounded, while the Mexicans lost 126 killed and 195 wounded, a total of 321. If it is true, as Rives maintains, that the figures given out by the Mexicans after the capitualation of 1847 were "grossly exaggerated," it sems to follow that history practically repeats itself in the casualty list; that it is to say, the losses inflicted upon the Americans by "snipers" in undefended Vera Cruz in 1914 were about the same as Scott's casualties, while the losses of Morales defending the city with more than 4,000 men were no heavier apparently than those of the unorganized Vera Cruzians whom General Maas left behind him to harry Admiral Fletcher's pacific invaders.

WHY ARE YOU SO TIRED?

The Weather is Not to Blame for That "Dragged Out" Feeling.

"This weather simply takes the life right out of me, I can hardly drag one foot after the other," said a run-down, tired-out woman, the other day.

We want to say to every such person in this vicinity. Don't blame the weather, it's your condition. You need a strengthening tonic and the very best we know is Vinol which is a combination of the two most world-famed tonics, namely the medicinal, curative elements of cod liver oil and tonic iron, for the blood.

A case has just come to our attention from Milford, Mich. "Mrs. Julia Barber says: "I was run-down and hardly able to drag about, my appetite was poor and I was not able to work. My druggist asked me to try Vinol. The first bottle helped me and after taking the second bottle I was able to work and felt well and strong. Vinol is the best medicine I have ever taken."

Try a bottle of Vinol with the understanding that your money will be returned if it does not help you. Piper Bros, Druggists, Charleroi, Pa.

Vin Hepatica gives almost instant relief in all such cases.
